HHG Legal Group recognised in 2026 Client Choice Awards

HHG Legal Group (HHG) has been recognised in the 2026 Client Choice Awards, recognising the firm's consistent delivery of high-quality client outcomes across Western Australia.

The Client Choice Awards are based on direct client feedback, assessing firms on service, communication, value and overall experience. This recognition reflects HHG's approach to supporting clients through some of life's most significant decisions, with a focus on clarity, continuity and care.

This recognition reflects the consistency of service delivered across HHG's practice areas and offices in Western Australia. It is a whole-of-firm outcome, driven by the collective efforts of teams working with individuals, families and businesses across a wide range of legal matters.

At the centre of this result is HHG's focus on delivering advice that is practical, clear and aligned to each client's circumstances. The firm's values of excellence, trust and care underpin this approach, shaping how matters are managed and how relationships are built over time.

Managing Director Murray Thornhill said the award reinforces the firm's commitment to delivering legal services that remain relevant over time.

"This recognition is particularly meaningful because it is based on what our clients say about their experience with us. Clients are trusting us with decisions that affect their families, their businesses, their assets and their future.

"Our focus is on providing advice that supports them not just at a single point in time, but across the course of their lives."

Murray continued "Our work often involves guiding clients through complex and, at times, sensitive situations. The ability to combine technical strength with clear communication and genuine care is central to how we operate. This award reflects the trust our clients place in us and the standard we set for ourselves."
