POP Tax has launched it's same-day tax refund solution.

Technology company POP Tax promises to max your tax back and pay your refund same day.

POP Tax has acknowledged that members of the public are wanting their tax refunds faster and bigger this year. This tax time promises to be like no other, as we shine a light on the new and innovative way for the public to max their tax back and get their cash paid on the spot with POP's instanttaxrefund.

In good news for taxpayers, the ATO has kept the $1,080 low-middle income tax offset, with the average refund expected to balloon out to over $2,500 this year.

On top of the tax offsets, the ATO have acknowledged the need for simplified working home from deduction with the rate of 80c per hour extended to 30 June 2021.

"Tracking these expenses can be challenging, so we have introduced a temporary shortcut method. It's a simple way to calculate these expenses with minimal record keeping requirements," ATO said in their publication.

Millions of Australians who have been required to work from home will be able to get more back in their tax returns this year thanks to new rules around expense claims.

POP Business and POP Tax CEO Patrick Sargent has created a new offering with tax refunds getting bigger and people wanting their cash faster than ever before.

"POP Tax has been working on a platform that really focuses on achieving it's customers primary goal of getting the maximum tax refund possible. With our trade-marked Max Deductible System, we ensure customers get paid the maximum tax refund possible and up to $1,000 paid the same day they lodge their tax return."

For the first time, taxpayers wanting to receive their refunds faster this year, will be offered a fixed fee with no hidden costs or charges.

"Not only will customers receive their refund the same day, but they also won't be required to pay anything up front. The fixed-fee of $169 includes the tax return service and the funds advancement which is unrivalled in the market", said Patrick.

POP Tax are meeting the growing demand for individuals wishing to lodge online with the platform showing strong user growth and engagement.

“The platform has grown to over 5,000 active users. We are excited to provide the general public with partner level tax advice through our innovative technology”, said Patrick.

“The growing buy now pay later demand has created the need for this type of offering and we are excited to be solving the problem of how people can access their money faster.”

With tax time just around the corner, now is the time to start getting your work-related expenses together. Patrick has advised that getting your ducks in order early is the key to ensuring a bigger tax refund, faster.

“It’s a good time to go through your bank statements and your tax receipts to pull together your work-related expenses. Allocating some time on this will ensure you are ready to lodge come 1 July and max your tax back”
